Mid-market business of the year award finalist

ServiceMaster Clean of Ottawa lands finalist position – Ottawa Business Achievement Awards

OTTAWA, Ontario – November 3, 2008 ServiceMaster Clean of Ottawa has been selected as a finalist for the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce Mid-Market Business of the Year 2008 Award.

The mid-market business of the year award is a sub-category of the Ottawa Business Achievement Awards. This prestigious annual award goes to one mid-market Ottawa business that has displayed excellence in the following areas: growth / sales & profitability, job creation and employee relations, customer service / quality, innovation / research and development, and community involvement / environmental responsibility.

ServiceMaster Clean of Ottawa president John Cooke is pleased to hear the news. "With so many great contenders in the Ottawa mid-market business category, being selected as a finalist is an achievement on its own."

Since submitting the required materials to the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce, ServiceMaster has been eagerly watching its progress. "I get excited just thinking about it," says Adam Weitner, PR and Marketing, ServiceMaster Clean of Ottawa. "Now that we've been selected as a finalist all we can do is wait until the awards gala where they'll be announcing the winners."

The awards gala, which attracts top executives from a number of corporations, non-profit organizations, and government offices, will be held at the Tudor Hall in Ottawa at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 20, 2008. Tickets for the gala are available through the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce. Visit www.ottawachamber.ca, or call 613-236-3631 for more info.
